

Cornell Notes

Cue column on the left, notes on the right, summary at the bottom.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Course: _____ Topic / chapter: _____

CUES: questions, keywords, terms	NOTES: write during class or while reading
	SUMMARY: the whole page in 2-3 sentences, in your own words

Based on the Cornell note-taking system developed by Walter Pauk at Cornell University. Not affiliated with or endorsed by Cornell University.

Turn these notes into flashcards

1. Fill the CUES column with a question for every chunk of notes ("What causes inflation?").
2. Photograph the page or type it up, then upload it at exceleraitor.com.
3. excelerAltor reads handwriting and builds flashcards and quizzes from it. Each cue is a front, its notes are the back.